AIADMK decides to retain dual leadership

T. RAMAKRISHNAN
CHENNAI

In a significant development reinforcing the AIADMK's 'dual leadership' concept, the party's executive on Wednesday decided to allow all primary members to elect candidates by a 'single vote' for the top posts of coordinator and co-coordinator.

The posts are now held by former Chief Ministers O. Panneerselvam and Edappadi K. Palaniswami respectively. Until now, members of the general council alone had been permitted to take part in the process. This came about after the general council, in September 2017, approved an amendment to the Rule 20, which dealt with the post of general secretary. The party had also decided then to create the posts of coordinator and co-coordinator in place of the general secretary.

Wednesday's decision marked the return of the mode of election for the general secretary which was in effect when M.G. Ramachandran and Jayalitha were at the helm.

Single vote election

The executive, which met for about 90 minutes at the party headquarters, decided that the election for the two posts be held through a single vote. It also decided that the condition for the new mode of election was beyond any amendment. Mr. Panneerselvam, Mr. Palaniswami and deputy coordinators K.P. Munusamy and R. Vaithilingam were among those present at the meeting. Out of 270 members, 258 took part at the meeting.

All the changes were incorporated in a resolution, which was passed by the

A Division Bench of the Kerala High Court on Wednesday directed Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), Hyderabad, to file an affidavit explaining the measures taken to ensure data privacy in the virtual queue platform for Sabarimala darsan.

The Bench comprising Justice Anil K. Narendran and Justice P.G. Ajithkumar passed the order when a suo motu case relating to the virtual queue management came up for hearing.

The court directed the project manager of TCS to state if the data collected at the time of Virtual-Q booking was being used for any other purpose and whether access to that data was available to the State police or any other agency.
