

Two students returning from US arrested for carrying three bullets as souvenir

EXPRESSNEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, SEPTEMBER 3

THE SAHAR police arrested two students at the CSMT

International Airport Friday for carrying three 9 mm bullets as souvenirs in their bags.

The students, who are from Tamil Nadu, had returned from the US and landed in Mumbai to catch another flight to Tamil Nadu.

The accused, Praveen Kanakraja, 22, from Theni and Sibu Sadasivam, 22, from Coimbatore, were studying business administration at a US university and during their stay there, they had visited a certain Open Pay Firing club to learn shooting.

They had taken three bullets as souvenirs from there.

During a security check at CSMT airport, a bullet was found in Kanakraja's bag and two in Sadasivam's bag.

The Sahar police was alerted by the Central Industrial Security Force (CISF), after which an FIR was registered against them under the Arms Act.

They were arrested and produced before a magistrate court and the police requested their custody for four days.

Their lawyer, advocate Prabhakar Tripathi, argued before the court stating, "My clients kept the bullet by mistake. They are innocent students."

The court sent them to police custody till September 6 for further probe.

GANPATI FESTIVAL

BMC will allot time slots for visarjan at Girgaum Chowpatty

SANJANA BHALERAO
MUMBAI, SEPTEMBER 3

TO REDUCE crowding at Girgaum Chowpatty in south Mumbai, one of the popular destinations for immersion of Ganapati idols, including Lalbaugcha Raja and Ganesh Gully, the BMC will allot time slots for visarjan.

The 10-day Ganpati festival will begin from September 10. Idol immersion or visarjan is conducted on the second, fifth and 11th day of the festival, with the highest number of immersions recorded on the last day.

Currently, online booking for visarjan is only planned for Girgaum Chowpatty. The civic body will send QR codes as confirmation for time slots allotted to individuals or mandals for immersion through a mobile application.

Last year, BMC's D ward had developed an app to streamline online immersion and sent confirmation messages for slot bookings. This year, such messages will be replaced by QR codes.

Prashant Gaikwad, Assistant Municipal Commissioner of D ward, said, "Similar to last year, mandals and individuals can book a time slot for immersions of idols at Girgaum Chowpatty. However, last year, we found a duplication of confirmation SMS. Thus, this year we will send QR codes, which will be scanned at the collection points for idols at the Chowpatty."

Last year, nearly 2,000 people had used the application to Only BMC staffers will be allowed in the water for immersion.

Pandal volunteers will have to hand over the idols to the civic staffers, who will further take them into the water. Volunteers have been directed not to perform puja or aarti at the collection points.

There are over 10,000 Sarvajanik Ganeshotsav mandals in the city. Around 12,000 Ganesh pandals are set up in Mumbai each year, some inside housing complexes that do not require BMC clearance. The civic body receives around 3,000 to 4,000 applications from organisers.

Last year, many organisers had cancelled the festivities and instead organised blood donation camps. The BMC is expecting an uptick in the number of pandals this time.

Till Friday, of the 2,626 applications it had received, BMC has approved 1,389 allowing for Ganesh pandal or a stage to come up on roads and footpaths. It has rejected 228 applications while 601 are under process.

book time slots.

As per rules, pandal volunteers and individuals involved in household pujas can go to idol collection points that will be set up near beaches and natural water bodies, but not into the wa-

Attacker will get severe punishment, Thackeray assures
Thane civic official
CHIEF MINISTER Uddhav Thackeray on Friday spoke to Kalpita Pimple, the Thane civic official who was attacked by a hawker during an anti-encroachment drive, and assured her that severe punishment would be given to the attacker.
Thane Mayor Naresh Mhaske has been updating Thackeray regularly about Pimple's condition since the attack on Monday.
Thackeray spoke to Pimple on Mhakse's phone on Friday. During the call, Pimple urged the CM to ensure strict action against the attacker.
Praising Pimple's bravery, Thackeray said, "I cannot describe your bravery. I wish you a speedy recovery. I am getting daily updates about your condition and the state government is standing with you. Severe punishment will be given to the attacker."
Pimple, the assistant municipal commissioner of Majiwada-Manpada area, was overseeing the removal of hawkers at Kasarvadavali junction when a hawker attacked her with a knife. She lost two of her fingers, which were later reattached by doctors. She also sustained severe head injuries in the attack.

MMRDA gets two bids for 7.2-km ropeway system
EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
MUMBAI, SEPTEMBER 3
THE MUMBAI Metropolitan Regional Development Authority (MMRDA) recently received two bids for its project to build a 7.2 km ropeway system, which aims to provide direct connectivity for residents of Gorai and Marve to Metro Line 2A between Dahisar(W) and Andheri(W), said MMRDA metropolitan commissioner DVR Shrinivas.
In March 2020, a Request for Proposal for Implementation of the Ropeway Corridor-1 between Mahavir Nagar Metro Station (Link Road) to Pagoda and Gorai Village, Mumbai on Design, Finance, Build, Operate, and Transfer (DFBOT) basis was floated.
According to MMRDA officials, the aerial transport system was considered faster than the ferry system, which is currently in operation on this stretch. The MMRDA's plan was to connect the Charkop Metro station with Marve village and Mahavir Nagar Metro station with Gorai pagoda and village.
